

Hi, my name is Jonah Swift. Today, you will read about my awesome grandma. I call her nanny but her real name is Linda Faye Tines. You will hear how she is truthful, we play cards, hangout, and we also eat lunch in the summer.

My nanny is 68 years old but looks younger. The first reason I think my nanny should be grandparent of the year is, she is truthful. She picked me up from school one day and she said we were going to eat. Five seconds later, she said we're going to the dentist instead. Sometimes, she can't even keep my birthday present a secret.

Another reason my nanny should be grandparent of the year is, she plays cards with me. We play Skip-Bo, Phase 10, Crazy 8's, and Uno. It's fun because I'm good and she's good. It's not like she lets me win every time. At family gatherings, we play Rook with family.

Also another reason my nanny should be grandparent of the year, is sometimes we just hang out. She keeps popcorn and already has a water dispenser for me. We also like to watch old TV shows. Our favorite is "The Lone Ranger". I also ride her golf cart around the farm. I also ride my bike down her massive hills.

The last reason I think my nanny should be grandparent of the year is she takes me to lunch in the summer. We go all the time. My favorite is Garcia's but nanny's is the Farm Boy. Sometimes, we order pizza from Firehouse. We also eat what my mom and dad fix for dinner sometimes.

Those are just a couple of reasons my nanny should be grandparent of the year. She's obviously the best candidate, grandma, grandparent, and friend. I hope you will consider my nanny for the grandparent of the year award.
